

BEING SEEN IS EASY

BEING UNDERSTOOD IS HARD

Why true-er today?

Visibility is easier than ever.
Fragmentation is higher than ever.

MINICARD – Top performers expose more dimensions of value

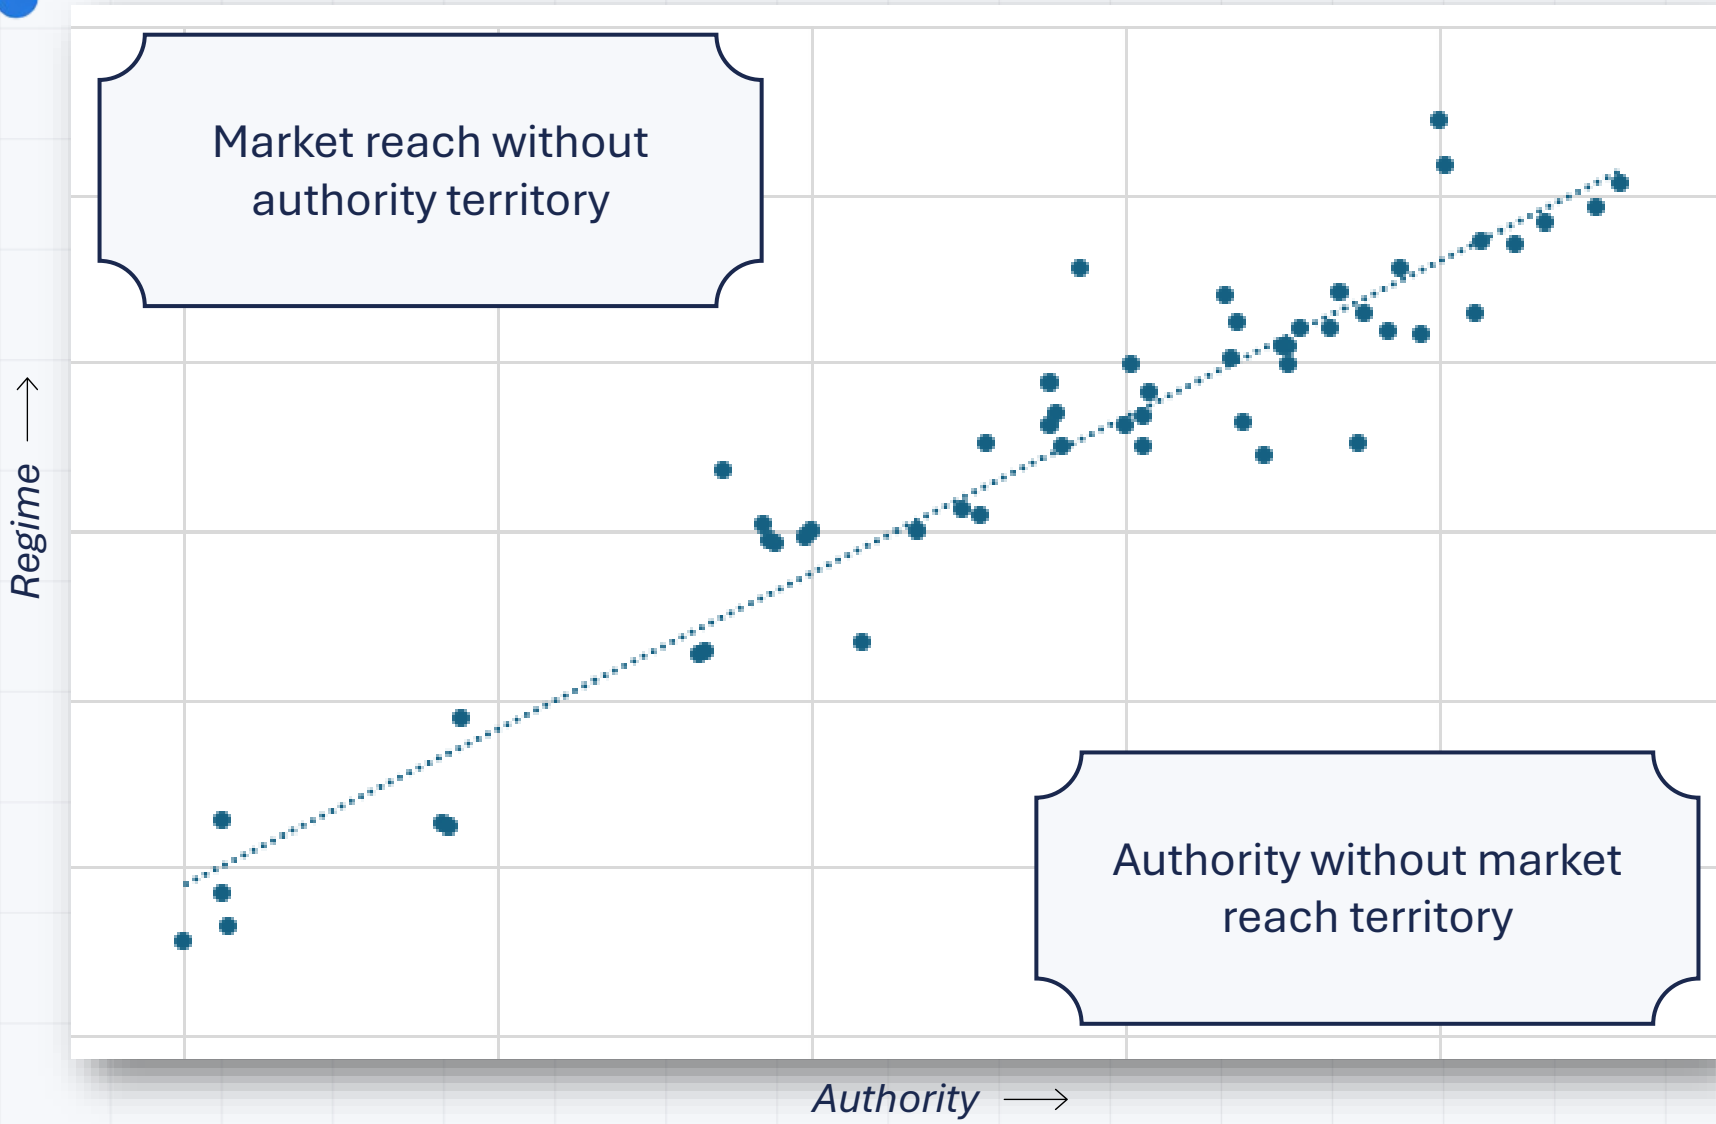

Top performers don't expose more content.
They expose more dimensions of value creation.

Markets don't adopt what they see.
Markets adopt what they understand.

MINICARD – Authority is engineered

Two failure modes appear repeatedly.

Some companies build engines that do not capture enough value.

Others build value that does not scale.

The strongest companies develop authority and regime at the same time.

Revenue Is Usually The Last Signal.

Markets see.

Markets evaluate.

Markets understand.

Markets trust.

Markets buy.
